The Woodcrest Villager

JUNE, 2018

Hello June!

What could be lovelier than the month of June in our neck of the woods? We'll enjoy every sunny, sweet moment. Tomatoes, cucumbers, lettuces and herbs are all coming up nicely in our raised beds. So are the flowers, including some well loved perennials transplanted from Bunny Keeshan's garden to Woodcrest's! Our adorable chicks are fast becoming small chickens! They aren't the only little birds here, our nesting neighbor on the porch has some newly hatched robin chicks to care for. Summer officially arrives on the 21st, the longest day of the year! The season is short, no time to waste. Let's get out there and enjoy it!

Let's start the summer off right with a trip to the beach! Yes, we'll pack some lunch, and some sunscreen and hit the road for a fun filled day on the shore. We'll head to Wallis Sands in Rye. Come dig your toes in the sand, and look at the Isle of Shoals! We may even stop for ice cream on the way home! This is a no-cost trip, don't forget to sign up early! The bus leaves in the morning of

June, 14th

"So sweet, so sweet the roses in their blowing, So sweet the daffodils, so fair to see; So blithe and gay the humming-bird a going From flower to flower, a-hunting with the bee."
- Nora Perry, In June

Last Month in Review

May brings new life and boy did it ever this month! A visiting litter of puppies charmed us all with their antics. Then there was the arrival of four baby chicks! Add the Dog Parade to that and it's safe to say we loved God's creatures great and small! We welcomed a new art show, heard fantastic talks about Morocco, and religion, planted flowers and sat in the sun. We sang with Kathy Lowe and took in a magic show with Bruce Cronin. May was a great lead up to a fun summer!

Art History at Woodcrest!

We at Woodcrest are fortunate to have the opportunity to hear some great talks in our community room. This month is no exception. We are glad to invite you to take in an art history discussion by Jane O'Neil. Jane has her Master of Art History from Harvard and has served as the curator for the Currier Museum as well as the Executive director of the League of New Hampshire Craftsmen. Please join us for her fascinating lecture June, 4th!

Welcome New Food Service Director Greg!

We are very pleased to introduce Greg Noury, our new Food Service Director! Greg comes to us with many years of experience in the health care field and a love of fresh ingredients and homecooked food. He enjoys being a skilled blacksmith and Ferrier, but not as much as being a father of eight! Welcome aboard Greg!

Holy Cow!

You may have noticed that we have a bright pink Gnu gracing our front lawn and greeting our guests. This sculpture is part of a Rotary Club Scholarship program. While we host it, we may paint it any way we like, or keep it pink! Look for a survey in your mailbox. If you have an idea for a theme for our Gnu, we'd love to hear it! We'll take a vote, and Colby Sawyer art students will come paint her up!

Wednesday Matinees are back!

Summer in New London means many pleasant things, but among them are shows at the Barn Playhouse. Once again, we've got seasons tickets! Don't hesitate to sign up and take in a matinee! Check your mailboxes for a listing of shows and dates. We'll be happy to charge a ticket to your room. The bus leaves every other Wednesday, promptly at 1:40. Space is limited so sign up early! Here's to another banner season at The Barn!
